I. GENERAL DUTIES AND OBLIGATIONS OF MEMBERS WHEN REPRESENTING THE UMGSA

All members have a fiduciary duty to act only in the best interests of the University of Manitoba Graduate Students' Association (hereinafter referred to as "UMGSA").

II. RULES GOVERNING CONFLICTS OF INTEREST

Preamble:

A Member holds a position of trust. As such, there is a general obligation to avoid situations of conflict of interest.

Definition of Conflict of Interest:

A conflict of interest arises when a Member's personal and/ or business/ occupational/ professional interests compete with or supersede the Member's dedication to the interest of the UMGSA. This could arise from a real or apparent conflict of interest.

Real Conflict of Interest:

A "real conflict of interest" exists when a Member holds a business, occupational or professional interest, whether directly or indirectly ("a personal interest"), that in the opinion of a reasonable person is sufficient to put into question the Member's ability to exercise their duties in the Club independently, impartially and objectively.

Avoidance of Conflicts:

Each Member must arrange their personal interests and conduct themselves in a manner to avoid a real or apparent conflict of interest. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, a Member:

- shall not act on behalf of, or deal with, the UMGSA, in any matter where a real or apparent conflict may exist;
- shall not use the relationship with the UMGSA to confer an advantage on oneself or on a close friend, any related person, business associate, or a corporation or partnership in which the Member holds significant interest;
- shall not use property owned by the UMGSA to confer an advantage on oneself or on a close friend, any related person, business associate, or a corporation or partnership in which the Member holds significant interest;
- shall not use information acquired through membership in the Club to confer an advantage on oneself or on a close friend, any related person, business associate, or a corporation or partnership in which the Member holds significant interest;

Clarification

If a Member is in doubt as to whether a conflict exists, the Member must seek the advice of the Chair of the Club; or of a person designated by the Club; and must follow the advice given. In the case of the Club Chair, they are to seek the advice of the Executive Committee.

Declaration of Conflict of Interest:

A Member must take immediate steps to resolve the conflict or to remove the perception that one exists. Each Member is required to make a declaration of the nature and extent of any conflict of interest at the first opportunity after the facts related to the conflict of interest have come to the Member's attention.

After making a declaration of a conflict of interest, the Member:

- shall not take part in the discussion of the matter and shall not vote on any question in respect of the matter (the Member may be counted for the purposes of reaching quorum for that meeting);
- shall leave the meeting for the period during which the matter is under discussion; and
- shall not attempt in any way, before, during or after the meeting, to influence the discussion and/or voting on any question in respect of the matter.

After a declaration of a conflict of interest has been made by a Member:

- the declaration and the resolution of any conflict of interest shall be recorded in the minutes of the meeting.

III. RULES GOVERNING CONFIDENTIALITY

Proceedings at "open" sessions of meeting of the Club are not confidential. Agendas, briefing documents, minutes, reports and other documents received by a Member for purposes of an open session are not confidential, unless specifically identified as "confidential".

Proceedings at "closed" sessions of meetings of the Club are confidential.

Agendas, briefing documents, minutes, reports and other documents received by a Member for purposes of a closed session of a Club meeting are confidential.

During the term of the Member and thereafter, confidential information received by a Member shall not be divulged to any other person without express prior, written authorization of the Club.

It is the responsibility of Members and any other person who receives confidential information to ensure the security of confidential information entrusted to them at all times. At the appropriate time, such documentation must be destroyed in a confidential matter. Members may return such documentation to the Office Manager for destruction.

OTHER

Rules about Gifts:

Members should not accept entertainment, gifts or favors that create or appear to create preferential treatment for the Member or the UMGSA. Gifts and entertainment should only be accepted or offered by a Member in the course of performing Club responsibilities where:

- The gift has no more than token value;
- It is the normal exchange of hospitality or customary gesture of courtesy between persons doing business together;
- The exchange is lawful and in accordance with local ethical practices and standards, and
- It could not be construed as creating a sense of obligation on the part of the Member.

Inappropriate gifts received by a Member should be returned to the donor.

Non-Compliance:

A Member who breaches any of the terms of this Code shall be subject to sanction by the Club, up to and including a request for the Member's resignation, or removal from the Club by the appointing body, as the case may require.

An Executive Member who breaches any of the terms of this Code may face impeachment according to the UMGSA bylaws.

The Chair and/or the Executive Review Committee shall assess the circumstances surrounding any non-compliance with these guidelines and shall make a recommendation to the Club.

All individuals are required to report any events that do not appear to be in compliance with the policy to the Vice-President Services & Support (vpss@umgsa.org) so as to reasonably ensure that the Chair of the Club, the Executive Review Committee and Auditor are informed of such events.

Orientation:

The Code shall form part of the orientation program for all Members.

Endnote:

Nothing in the Code is intended to preclude any person from membership of the Club. The Code exists to provide a framework within which to deal with situations that arise between a Member's duties to the Club and their private affairs. As long as the "Declaration" is properly made and the provisions of the Code followed, the relationship may continue.
