Where candidates are part of a slate, any disciplinary action, including disqualification, taken by the CRO against any candidate shall not affect other members of the slate unless they are named in the complaint and the CRO determines they are also at fault. Each infraction by a member of a slate shall be considered a violation by that individual candidate.

A candidate has the right to appeal this penalty to the Elections Committee. If a valid appeal is filed within 48 hours before the start of voting, the candidate's name shall remain on the ballot, pending a verdict from the Elections Committee.
2. Every candidate starts with a score of 0, and receives demerits as penalties for infractions. Demerits are associated with a commensurate penalty based on the severity, long term consequences, and overall impact of the infraction on the election process. If a candidate is penalized up to or beyond 10 demerits, then they will receive the most severe penalty, disqualification.
3. If a candidate commits the same infraction on multiple occasions, the demerit tier will be elevated by one tier for each repeated infraction. (e.g., if a candidate is found to be campaigning early, they first receive 1 demerit, but if the candidate commits the same infraction again, they would receive an additional 2 demerits, with an additional 5 demerits on a third occasion.)
4. Offences and infractions considered to be committed by an entire slate shall be evenly divided between the entire slate.
5. A table outlining potential infractions and their respective number of demerits is provided below. A second table outlines the recommended penalties associated with a given number of demerit points. These tables shall not be expected to be all inclusive, and in the case of uncategorized infractions or extenuating circumstances the CRO can assign demerits or penalties other than those recommended in the tables.

Recommended # of Demerits	Severity of Infraction
10 Demerits	Severe infraction with long lasting impacts (e.g., property damage, defamation of opponent in physical or online context (libel), severe illegal content in campaigning materials)
